

FRANCISCO RODRIGUEZ-COVARRUBIAS, M.D.

Dr. Rodriguez-Covarrubias completed his general surgery and urology residency in 2005 at Instituto Nacional de Nutrición Salvador Zubirán in Mexico City, where he serves as attending urologist in the Department of Urology since July 2007.

He has 1-year fellowship training in Laparoscopy and Urological Oncology at the Department of Urology at Henri Mondor University Hospital in Créteil, France under the mentorship of Professor Claude C. Abbou in 2006.

Since September 2009, Dr. Rodriguez-Covarrubias has been appointed as a Researcher for the National Researchers System of the Science and Technology National Council (CONACYT) in Mexico.

In 2018 he was appointed member of the Ethics Committee of the Latin American Renal Cancer Group (LARCG). Currently serves as President of the Mexican Association of Urologic Oncology and as Coordinator of the Uro-Oncology Chapter of the Mexican Society of Urology.

He has authored more than 40 papers published in peer-reviewed indexed journals including Lancet, The Journal of Urology, Urology, BJU International, Prostate Cancer and Prostatic Diseases, Canadian Urological Association Journal, World Journal of Urology and International Brazilian Journal of Urology. His main areas of interest and research include Urologic Oncology, Laparoscopy, Kidney Transplants and Urinary Tract Infections.