

Bryan Lewis
United States

Bryan Lewis has led the advocacy efforts for KidneyCan – the Kidney Cancer Coalition – www.kidneycan.org. As a kidney cancer survivor, he has been an active legislative advocate and policy spokesman for the kidney cancer community in Washington, D.C. devoting most of his efforts to policy advocacy in the United States Congress & regulatory agencies. Most recently, he was successful in leading community efforts to obtain $50 million for the KCRP – Kidney Cancer Research Program (www.cdmp.ramc.mil/kcrp/).

Bryan has also been appointed to the NCCN (National Comprehensive Cancer Network) Kidney Cancer Guidelines Panel. Previously, he held the positions of Vice President, Operations for Brand USA, and as Chief of Staff & General Counsel, U.S. Travel Association, a Washington, D.C.-based trade association.

