

Jyoti Patil Shah
India

Jyoti Patil Shah is a patient advocate and the Chief Operating Officer at V Care Foundation in India, where she manages a team of patient advocates and project staff to fulfil the organisational mission to support and educate cancer patients and caregivers. She has been a part of V Care Foundation for 13 years.

Before her work at V Care, Jyoti was a school counselor where she addressed the challenges of children from marginalised backgrounds and hosted workshops for parents and teachers. She holds a Masters in Industrial Psychology and a Post Graduate Diploma in School Counselling. Her work is guided by the belief: The stronger the why, the easier the how becomes.
