

Dr. Abudayyeh

Dr. Abudayyeh is an Onconeurologist at MD Anderson Cancer Center with extensive experience in kidney diseases in cancer patients. She is both the director of clinical research in section of nephrology and chair of immunotherapy induced nephritis as part of IOTOX committee at MDACC. Her research interest has been Immunotherapy induced nephrotoxicity and stem cell transplant related kidney complications. She is also one of the founding member of an international society which focuses on kidney care in cancer patients, American Society of Onconeurology (ASON).